

Statement of Significant Corporate Governance Differences

We do not believe that our corporate governance practices differ in any significant way from those followed by U.S. domestic companies under New York Stock Exchange listing standards.